

Temporary Food Permit Policy

- I. Non-profit organizations (must provide their 501(c)3)
 - A. Fee waived if organization sells pre-packaged food. Organization must donate 100% of profits to their cause to be fee free.
 - B. $50 temporary food permit fee administered if any food items are prepared.
- II. All events will require a temporary food permit to be submitted, regardless of fees charged.
- III. There will be no charge for restaurants that have valid food permits – even if they are from another City. They must provide a copy of the food permit with their temporary food permit request.
- IV. Jennifer Gomez will manage and route all food permit fees for city events organized by the Parks and Recreation Department.
 - a. Jennifer will communicate participating restaurants to Joe Tilger.